

Bonne Maman Faux Flower Bouquet Individual Flower Meanings

- Pink roses represent sweetness, grace, appreciation and admiration (when did you last tell your mum how much you admire and appreciate her?)
- Yellow roses mean friendship and joy. Even though it's a tough balance to navigate parenting and friendship we often realise later in life that our mother is not only our first friend but our best friend.
- Zinnias represent endurance. A mother's love is certainly enduring!
- Sweet peas mean gratitude and blissful pleasure. We all give thanks for the time we spend with our mam and the pleasure it brings.
- Mimosa signifies sensitivity and safety. Nothing is as soft and secure as a hug from your old girl.
- Orange poppies indicate regeneration. Mums love being told their child is a chip off the old block, a mini me.
- Chrysanthemums symbolise happiness and wellbeing. A mother's priorities for her children.
- Bellflowers mean affection, constancy and everlasting love. No explanation needed here.
- Asters signify love, faith and wisdom. We all know moms know best.
- Lavender is the epitome of serenity and calm. Attributes that a child will test (especially throughout the teenage years) but the calming embrace is our home is what many of us associate with our mum.
- Delphiniums are known as the big-hearted flowers and no heart is as big as mum's filled with love for her family!